

The Barns of Rose Hill
Presents
The Shenandoah University
Television Film

"Wit, Will and Walls:
The Betty Kilby Fisher Story" in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King's birthday

The documentary, produced by Shenandoah University filmmaker Paulette Moore with a grant from the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, features scholars from across the country and examines the life of Shenandoah University alumna Betty Kilby Fisher, who was just 13 years old when she was a plaintiff in a 1958 case to desegregate Warren County, Va. Schools.

The Events are free and Open to the Public:

Monday January 21 - The Josephine School Museum
303 Josephine St. Berryville, Va. 7:00 P.M.

Thursday January 24 - Johnson Williams Middle School, 200 Swan Ave. Berryville, Va.
10:00 A.M.

Betty Kilby Fisher, filmmaker Paulette Moore and SU student filmmakers will be at each location for the film and discussion.

For more information please contact Janet Eltinge at 540-837-9969.